Donald kindly agreed to judge the entries of our special display from St Bridget's School in West Kirby and decided that Evie Clewes should be awarded the appropriate rosette.

As well as the vital support of all the artists and our advertisers, we have had invaluable assistance from the staff at Carr Farm, the Plaisance Restaurant and Lancelyn Supplies who provided our display boards, helping to make our Rotary Art Exhibition a great success.

cheerfully dealt with any requests for soft drinks and the inevitable need for extra glasses of wine once the complimentary glass had been consumed!

Donald Quick, an artist who has supported us for many years, once again won the rosette for the most appealing painting with his beautiful depiction of Polperro.
