

What do you like most about Wirral's coast?

We would like to invite you to take part in a survey exploring residents' and visitors' views on Wirral's coast. The results will help us to understand what people value most about Wirral's coast and the environmental issues it faces. You can access the survey at <http://survey.liv.ac.uk/WirralCoast> or request a paper version by calling 0151 934 2966.

The survey is being carried out as part of the work of the Celtic Seas Partnership project* which brings people together to help achieve healthy and sustainable seas. It is being organised by the University of Liverpool and the North West Coastal Forum with the help of Wirral Council.

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

* Celtic Seas Partnership is an EC LIFE+ project with the contribution of the LIFE financial instrument of the European Community. It is a four year project, running from January 2013 to December 2016. WWF-UK is the lead with partners the University of Liverpool, Eastern and Midland Regional Authority, the Natural Environment Research Council and SeaWeb Europe. Project number: LIFE11/ENV/UK/392.

What do you like most about Wirral's coast?

We would like to invite you to take part in a survey exploring residents' and visitors' views on Wirral's coast. The results will help us to understand what people value most about Wirral's coast and the environmental issues it faces. You can access the survey at <http://survey.liv.ac.uk/WirralCoast> or request a paper version by calling 0151 934 2966.

The survey is being carried out as part of the work of the Celtic Seas Partnership project* which brings people together to help achieve healthy and sustainable seas. It is being organised by the University of Liverpool and the North West Coastal Forum with the help of Wirral Council.

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

* Celtic Seas Partnership is an EC LIFE+ project with the contribution of the LIFE financial instrument of the European Community. It is a four year project, running from January 2013 to December 2016. WWF-UK is the lead with partners the University of Liverpool, Eastern and Midland Regional Authority, the Natural Environment Research Council and SeaWeb Europe. Project number: LIFE11/ENV/UK/392.

What do you like most about Wirral's coast?

We would like to invite you to take part in a survey exploring residents' and visitors' views on Wirral's coast. The results will help us to understand what people value most about Wirral's coast and the environmental issues it faces. You can access the survey at <http://survey.liv.ac.uk/WirralCoast> or request a paper version by calling 0151 934 2966.

The survey is being carried out as part of the work of the Celtic Seas Partnership project* which brings people together to help achieve healthy and sustainable seas. It is being organised by the University of Liverpool and the North West Coastal Forum with the help of Wirral Council.

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

* Celtic Seas Partnership is an EC LIFE+ project with the contribution of the LIFE financial instrument of the European Community. It is a four year project, running from January 2013 to December 2016. WWF-UK is the lead with partners the University of Liverpool, Eastern and Midland Regional Authority, the Natural Environment Research Council and SeaWeb Europe. Project number: LIFE11/ENV/UK/392.

What do you like most about Wirral's coast?

We would like to invite you to take part in a survey exploring residents' and visitors' views on Wirral's coast. The results will help us to understand what people value most about Wirral's coast and the environmental issues it faces. You can access the survey at <http://survey.liv.ac.uk/WirralCoast> or request a paper version by calling 0151 934 2966.

The survey is being carried out as part of the work of the Celtic Seas Partnership project* which brings people together to help achieve healthy and sustainable seas. It is being organised by the University of Liverpool and the North West Coastal Forum with the help of Wirral Council.

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

* Celtic Seas Partnership is an EC LIFE+ project with the contribution of the LIFE financial instrument of the European Community. It is a four year project, running from January 2013 to December 2016. WWF-UK is the lead with partners the University of Liverpool, Eastern and Midland Regional Authority, the Natural Environment Research Council and SeaWeb Europe. Project number: LIFE11/ENV/UK/392.